On Wednesday, June 18th, NewFilmMakers Celebrates Crime.

Our 6:00PM NEWFILMMAKERS SHORT NOIR FILM PROGRAM includes Jonathan Budine TAKE OUT (2007, 5 Minutes, Video); Jeff Vanderwal SEEK (2007, 10 Minutes, Video); Jon Lewis THE TELEPHONE (2006, 38 Minutes, Video) and Jesse Grce NOIR (2007, 6 Minutes, Video),

Our 7:00PM NEWFILMMAKERS SHORT COP FILM PROGRAM includes Alex Brownstein TO CATCH A PREDATOR (2008, 2 Minutes, Video); Steve Hosford WHITEBREAD AND GOATMAN (2006, 7 Minutes, Video); Will Simmons VILE (2007, 32 Minutes, Video); Donna Roman A CALL FOR VALOR (2007, 11 Minutes, Video) and Darrell Martinelli GONE TO FAR (2007, 38 Minutes, Video).

Our 8:30PM NEWFILMMAKERS FIRST FEATURE PRESENTATION is Richmond Riedel TARGET PRACTICE (2007, 98 Minutes, Video). Target Practice is an intelligent but raw, visceral, extremely tense updating of outdoor thrillers with an emphasis on character as much as action. The story centers on 5 blue-collar friends on a weekend fishing trip – and the hell that's unleashed upon them when they almost run into a car that's been abandoned in the middle of an isolated mountain road.

And our 10:15PM NEWFILMMAKERS SECOND FEATURE PRESENTATIONS are two films from Anthology Films (no relation) about murder and mayhem the way we like it. Nicholas Spaventa DRIVING: A STORY OF VENGEANCE (2008, 31 Minutes, Video) is about the incredible lengths that man will go for vengeance. David Sainte THE PACT (2008, 30 Minutes, Video) is about two friends out for a night of fun who discover a deadly secret.

NewFilmMakers NY screens every Wednesday at Anthology Film Archives on the Lower East Side at the corner of Second Avenue & 2nd Street. NewFilmMakers LA screens at the A&D Museum on Wilshire Blvd. NewFilmMakers Online is now accepting films on the Internet.

More information is available at www.NewFilmMakers.com. Admission is still $5 for the whole evening in New York and in Los Angeles.
